(6) Subject to subsection (7), where the intentions of the parties to instruments referred to in subsection (5) appear to the Registrar to conflict, the order of registration is the order in which the instruments were lodged in registrable form.

(7) For the purposes of this section:

- (a) an instrument that is lodged in registrable form and is subsequently withdrawn is deemed not to be in registrable form until re-lodged in a manner approved for the time being by the Registrar and in registrable form;
- (b) an instrument is taken not to be in registrable form—

(11) Upon registration, an instrument has the effect of a deed duly executed by the parties who signed it.

(12) Upon registration of an instrument, the Registrar must deliver a computer folio search in respect of the folio of the register the subject of the instrument to the person by whom that instrument was lodged or to the person's solicitor, known agent or attorney.

28. Registrar may require plan – The Registrar may require the proprietor of any land subject to the provisions of this Act, or any estate or interest in that land, desiring to transfer or otherwise to deal with the same or any part thereof to deposit under the Survey Act 2010 or the relevant law on the survey of land in Samoa a plan of such land.

30. Treatment of instruments that do not comply with requirements – (1) The Registrar must not register any instrument purporting to transfer or otherwise to deal with or affect any estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act, except in the manner herein provided, and the Registrar may reject any instrument which the Registrar is satisfied should not be registered.

(2) The Registrar may, at the Registrar's discretion, register an instrument despite any error therein or omission therefrom and, in such case, the error or omission does not invalidate the registration of the instrument.

(3) Instead of rejecting any instrument containing a patent error, the Registrar may of the Registrar's own motion correct the error by marginal notation on the instrument, and the instrument so corrected has the like validity and effect as if the error had not been made.

(4) The Registrar may register an instrument containing departures from an approved form, not being in matters of substance.

PART 7

EFFECT OF REGISTRATION

31. Instruments not effectual until recorded in Register –

interests and such entries, if any, as are recorded in that folio, but absolutely free from all other estates and interests that are not so recorded except:

- (b) in the case of the omission or mis-description of an easement existing immediately before the land was brought under the provisions of this Act or validly created at or after that time under this or any other Act;
- (c) as to any portion of land that may by wrong description of parcels or of boundaries be included in the folio of the Register or registered dealing evidencing the title of such registered proprietor, not being a purchaser or mortgagee thereof for value, or deriving from or through a purchaser or mortgagee thereof for value;

(3) Nothing in this Act confers on a registered owner, claiming otherwise than as a purchaser for valuable consideration, any better title than was held by his or her immediate predecessor in title.

(4) Subsection (1) does not operate to defeat:

- (a) any claim based on an existing interest affecting land comprised in a qualified folio of the Register; or
- (b) any estate or interest in that land, arising by prescription or under any statute of limitations, in existence in respect of an ordinary folio of the Register.

33. Purchaser from registered proprietor not to be affected by notice – (1) Except in the case of fraud, no person contracting or dealing with or taking or proposing to take a transfer from the registered proprietor of any registered estate or interest, shall:

- (b) be required to see to the application of the purchase money or any part thereof; or
- (c) be affected by notice direct or constructive of any trust or unregistered interest, any rule of law or equity to the contrary notwithstanding; and the knowledge that any such trust or unregistered interest is in existence shall not of itself be imputed as fraud.

(2) No person contracting or dealing in respect of an estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act is to be affected by notice of any instrument, fact, or thing merely by omission to search in a register not kept under this Act.

Registered proprietor suing for specific performance – (1) In any proceedings for specific performance brought by a registered proprietor of any land under the provisions of this Act, against a person who may have contracted to purchase such land not having notice of any fraud or other circumstances which according to the provisions of this Act would affect the right of the vendor, the folio of the Register or a computer folio certificate evidencing the title of the registered proprietor is to be held in any Court to be conclusive evidence that the registered proprietor has a good and valid title to the land and for the estate or interest therein mentioned or described, and production to the Court of any such folio or certificate, as the case maybe, entitles the registered proprietor to judgment for the specific performance of such contract.

(2) Subsection (1) does not operate to defeat any claim based on an existing interest affecting land comprised in a qualified folio of the Register.

35. Bona fide purchasers and mortgagees protected– (1) Except to the extent to which this Act otherwise expressly provides, nothing in this Act is to be construed so as to deprive any purchaser or mortgagee bona fide for valuable consideration of any estate or interest in land under the provisions of this Act in respect of which the person is the registered proprietor.

(2) Despite any other provision of this Act, proceedings for the recovery of damages, or for the possession or recovery of land, do not lie against a purchaser or mortgagee bona fide for valuable consideration of land under the provisions of this Act merely because the vendor or mortgagor of the land:

- (a) may have been registered as proprietor through fraud or error, or by means of a void or voidable instrument; or
  - (b) may have procured the registration of the relevant transfer or mortgage to the purchaser or mortgagee through fraud or error, or by means of a void or voidable instrument; or
